

World Shipping Council Elects New Board Member

Engelstoft Joins Board

June 23, 2010

The World Shipping Council (WSC) has appointed a new board member to fulfill the unexpired term of retiring director, Mr. Knud Pontoppidan of A.P. Moller-Maersk. Mr. Pontoppidan served on the WSC board since its creation in 2000. Succeeding him will be Mr. Morten H. Engelstoft, Chief Operating Officer of Maersk Line.

The other members of the Council's board are: Mr. Ron Widdows, NOL (Chairman); Mr. Philip Chow, Orient Overseas Container Line (OOCL); Mr. Thomas Crowley, Jr., Crowley Maritime Corporation; Mr. Rafi Danieli, Zim Integrated Shipping Services; Mr. Y. M. Kim, Hanjin Shipping; Mr. Joachim A. Konrad, Hamburg Süd; Mr. Ulrich Kranich, Hapag Lloyd; Mr. Rodolphe Saadé, CMA CGM; Dr. Sun Jia-Kang, COSCO Container Lines; and Mr. Masakazu Yakushiji, Mitsui OSK Lines (MOL).

The World Shipping Council is an association of liner shipping companies with offices in Brussels and Washington, D.C. Its members carry over 90 percent of international containerized trade. The Council's goal is to provide a coordinated voice for the liner shipping industry in its work with policymakers and other industry groups interested in international transportation issues.
