

WORLD SHIPPING COUNCIL
PARTNERS IN TRADE

CCNI Joins World Shipping Council

July 1, 2009 -- The World Shipping Council is pleased to welcome Compañía Chilena Navegación Interoceánica (CCNI) as its newest member. Established in 1930, CCNI is headquartered in Chile and provides regular international maritime cargo services mainly between the west coast of South America and North America, Asia and Europe. To learn more about CCNI, visit <http://www.cni.cl/>